NILSSON'S MARRIAGE-INTERESTING PAR-TICULARS. London Correspondent Cincinnati Commer cial )

There is a good deal of interest felt here There is a good deal of interest felt here just now at the approaching marriage of M'lle Christine Nilsson. She is to be married on the 27th of this month, in Westminster Abbey, by Dean Stanley. Perhaps I may venture to whisper so far away what a little bird has told me of the affair. The fortunate gentleman is M. Auguste Rouzand, a stock broker of Paris, and son of a French Admiral—as there are only twelve Admirals in France this means a high distinction. M. Rouzand, as I have reason to know, does not need, to those who know him, any rank beyond as I have reason to know, does not need, to those who know him, any rank beyond that which he intrinsically is—a cultivated and smiable man. He is thirty-six, she twenty-four years of age. The wedding will have some features which will, perhaps, surpass those of the Marquis of Bute and Miss Fox, of Holland House. For interest all the dresses, bride, and bride. instance, all the dresses—bride's and bridesmaids—are to be made by the famous mannilliner of Paris, Worth. Baron Rothchild is to give the bride away. The bridegroom's first man is to be Prince Ponisnowski, the author of the new opers written for Patti, "Gelmina." Among the bridesmaids are to be Miss Bentinck, daughter of Lord George Cavendish Ben-tinck; Miss Kate Nivian, Miss Dodge of Boston, United States; Miss Burnham and Miss Spooner—the last three being ladies whose acquantance Mille Nilsson made on her voyage from America.

A WHOLE PROPLE'S OPINION .- When a nation of forty millions accepts and endorses as a STANDARD RESTORATIVE an article that it has had the fullest opportun-ities of testing during a period of twelve years, who can be so absurdly incredulous as to doubt the excellence of the preparathrough this ordeal and is now the most popular proprietary medicine on this con-tinent. It would be difficult to find an adult of either sex between the Atlantic and the Pacific, or between the northeast corner of Maine and the Gulf of Mexico, who does not know, either from personal experience or observation, that this re-nowned vegetable remedy is the purest tonic and stomachic and the finest alterative and regulating medicine at present before the world. As a preventive of, and cure for diseases generated by malaria, and as a specific for dyspepsia, rheuma-tism, and all nervous and billious affections, it is admitted to be fairly pronouced the FAVORITE HOUSEHOLD TONIC AND ALTERATIVE of the Western Hemisphere. j27eod1w
